Covering 350 acres, it weaves through a striking landscape of mature trees, lava rocks and expansive lakes and wetlands. Lava rock walls and village ruins created years ago remain as a testament to the site's past. As a premier tournament venue, the Blackstone Course provides extensive spectator mounding for fans and thrilling world-class golf capable of challenging the world's greatest players. 18:00 Welcome dinner in Mission Hills Resort <hr/>  Mission Hills Golf Resort Haikou Hotel	 B  D

There is a feel of expanse that creates a big look and the black rock and sand dominate the landscape like no other course in the world. At 7400 yards, it too is capable of hosting significant events. <hr/>  Mission Hills Golf Resort Haikou Hotel	 B

D4	Mission Hills Haikou 	09:00am - Play The Vintage Course (No.3) At Mission Hills Golf Club (Haikou) 7,363 Yards / Par 72 The Vintage is patterned after the classic courses built at the turn of the century. On one hand, there is a distinct natural feel to the layout with holes carefully routed on existing terrain leaving the heavily wooded site as undisturbed as possible. At the same time, much of the feature work utilizes odd, sometimes geometric shapes and quirky features that are distinctively old. Revered courses such as the National Golf Links, Fishers Island, Maidstone, Chicago Golf Club, and Garden City served as inspiration for creating a course that gives a distinct nod to the days of old. The natural terrain is frequently contrasted by striking, abrupt mounds, deep pots, square edges, ridges, blind shots, long and thin bunkers near both small and huge greens with wicker basket pins. These features resemble the hand-work of the past and provide a welcome relief from the many cookie-cutter modern courses that dominate golf today. The course plays over some 250 acres with plenty of elbow room and heavy vegetation creating a core golf feeling that is easily walked. <hr/>   Mission Hills Golf Resort Haikou Hotel 	 B
